

FAQ For Business Partners

How does it benefit me?

This opportunity has two prongs. It further provides you with opportunity to earn additional income, may you be retired or are on your own. At the same time, you are also helping those seeking career and giving them an opening.

How soon can I see the returns/commission?

The returns or commissions are on a case to case basis, it differs individually according to the industry, experience and other related matter.

How do I know if the candidates I bring have got a placement?

You will be notified by our office and we will discuss on the subsequent processes and the related issues.

I can't see the actual mechanism of how the jobs are acquired so how do I have the confident to persuade anyone?

AP Online jobs has fifteen years of experience in recruitment, having had placed many in important career platforms. The candidates can always refer to our website or our call consultants for more information and develop further confidence in using our platform for their career start or change.

Will this job portal take off and if doesn't what happens to my time and effort?

The job portal is live and is constantly updated and maintained to give the best, sharpest result sought by jobseekers and is certainly worth the time and effort.

Does your company has existing employers/job seekers?

AP Online Jobs already has a pool of jobseekers, employers and especially business partners who are waiting for the matching of the career with the right candidates.

Could you assist me a few times when I bring an employer or a candidate?

You can contact our call consultants for further information and advice us and we shall consider your requests accordingly.

How does your platform look and what if I don't know how to use it?

Our platform is easy-to-use and is definitely user friendly. Job candidates, workers from all platforms have all become well-versed with online type applications and are certainly savvy enough to use our own platform.

Do I have to register clients myself?

You can do it yourself and/or refer to our Call Centre consultants.

What happens if I can't get any clients?

We shall assist you with valuable insights and may conduct training to help you with the recruitment process.